Hon. Allen W. Dulles, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Allen:

STAT Many thanks for being willing to talk with [redacted] -- I hope she was not too much of a nuisance. As I indicated to you, she was sent in to me by a friend, and, although I felt sorry for her, I had no means of judging whether her complaints were well founded or not. My impression was that she did get somewhat of a raw deal from the Army in France, but, as you say, that is an Army matter and not an Agency matter.

With best regards, and hoping to see you sometime soon, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

Francis T. Plimpton

P.S. I might add that I also gave her a letter of introduction to Jim Douglas, as to the Army end of the thing.
